On 1 September the Laipin-Chennankuan Railroad was completed to Mingchiang (107-11, 22-09). Approximately 15,000 laborers, including 5,000 prisoners under the command of a "labor training center" for Hunan and Kwangsi, are now employed on the construction of the railroad between Mingchiang and Chennankuan. CH'EN Ch'ang-chin (陳昌金), head of the China-Indochina Railroad Engineers Brotherhood Association (中越鐵路工程兄弟協會), and 10 other members of the association are now supervising the construction of the railroad which is scheduled for completion by 1 January 1952.
